misplaced Distrust

Where words and actions meet trust is made or broken.

Disappointment: the _____ we feel when what we hoped for, desired, or expected, doesn't happen.

What is God preventing in his _____ that he could have easily solved with His _____?

The key to avoiding disappointment with God is to _____ our will with His.

When our trust of God depends on _____ reassurances, it's a bogus trust!

7 Thoughts About Whether to Trust Someone

1. Reliability? Consider your past encounters and how well they have fulfilled commitments.
2. Competence? Measure the demonstrated capabilities they have about the subject matter.
3. Predictability? Make educated guesses based on past experiences how they will act.
4. Consistency? Determine how steady they've behaved or if they're erratic.
5. Communication? Establish if they speak effectively with what they have shared with you.
6. Relationship? Decide the depth and breadth of your knowledge about them.
7. Support? Determine if they would be "on your side" if/when there're challenges along the way.
